The Customs Tariff provides for the free entry of certain household and other effects as follows :

Item 704. Apparel, wearing and other personal and household effects not merchandise, of British subjects dying abroad, but domiciled in Canada; books, pictures, family plate or furniture, personal effects and heirlooms left by bequest to any resident of Canada, or acquired by any resident of Canada, as a result of the death of any person resident abroad, or as a gift in anticipation of the death of any such person; all such good or articles when given as a free gift by anyone resident abroad to a resident of Canada; the Minister to be the sole judge as to whether any goods or any article imported is to be classified as entitled to the benefit of this item or not.

Item 705. Settlers' effects, viz.: Wearing apparel, books, usual and reasonable household furniture and other household effects; instruments and tools of trade, occupation or employment, guns, musical instruments, domestic sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles, carts, wagons and other highway vehicles, agricultural implements and live stock for the farm, not to include live stock or articles for sale, or for use as a contractor's outfit, nor vehicles nor implements moved by mechanical power, nor machinery for use in any manufacturing establishment: all the foregoing if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, and subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister.....

Provided that the six months ownership requirement as specified in this Item shall not apply in the case of bona fide brides' trousseaux and wedding presents.

Provided further that any dutiable article entered as settlers' effects may not be so entered unless brought by the settler on his first arrival, and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of duty until after twelve months' actual use in Canada.

Item 705a. Settlers' effects, viz.: Machines and implements for agricultural purposes, moved by mechanical power, and motor vehicles valued at not more than fifteen hundred dollars, and boats for fishing purposes, if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, and subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister of National Revenue.....

Provided that in respect to motor vehicles valued in excess of fifteen hundred dollars duty shall be payable only on the amount in excess of fifteen hundred dollars.

Provided further that the said machines, vehicles, implements and boats may not be so entered unless brought by the settler on his first arrival, and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of duty until after twelve months' actual use in Canada.
